

Conclave: Creating 300 MTPA steel capacity at PHD Chamber

Event Report

Event Name: Conclave: Creating 300 MTPA steel capacity	Event Date: 20 th Dec 2022
Faculty Coordinators: Mr. Deepanshu Gupta(CTLTD)	Event Timings: 11:00 AM – 3:30 PM
Number of Participants: 46	Venue: PHD Chamber of Commerce & industry, New Delhi

Expected Outcome

- To make students aware about the nuances of ambitious and significant endeavour within the steel industry and its correlation with investments and infrastructure.

Purpose of the event:-

- Students will learned about the contribution of steel industry in the different sphere of economic development.

Detailed Report:-

This was a detailed session on creating 300 MTPA steel capacity where the experts from different horizon discussed the significance of this ambitious project. They argued that this project would likely involve multiple phases and considerations, including investments, infrastructure and environmental impact. Current global and regional steel production and demand led to this ambitious project. This project is directly and indirectly associated with multiple stakeholders in the country as well as the outside of the country. Students got opportunities to discuss with the experts on specific question about the correlation and importance of this ambitious project with infrastructure development and manufacturing sector.

Learning Outcomes:-

- Students learned about the evolution and progress of industry over the years and how steel industry contributed in the different sphere of economic development.
- Students got opportunities to discuss with the experts on specific question about the correlation and importance of this ambitious project with infrastructure development and manufacturing sector.

Report Prepared by

(Mr. Deepanshu Gupta)