Expected Outcome

The main objectives of the farewell event were

- To express gratitude and appreciation to the outgoing PGDM students for their hard work and dedication.
- To provide students, faculty, and staff a platform to bid farewell and express their well wishes.
- To commemorate the accomplishments and achievements of the PGDM students during their tenure at the institute.
- To create a memorable and enjoyable experience for the students as they embark on their professional journey.

Detailed Report

The event commenced with a warm welcome address by Dr. Vandana Arora Sethi, Group Director & Chief Strategy Officer of Lloyd, highlighting the achievements and contributions of the PGDM students and setting a positive tone for the evening. One by one all faculty members delivered inspiring keynote speeches, sharing insights and encouraging the students to excel in their careers. Each PGDM student was individually acknowledged and appreciated for their contributions to the institute. Outstanding students were recognized and awarded certificates of achievement.

To add an element of entertainment, cultural performances such as music, dance, and the opinion of one student for another game were organized by the organizer to showcase their diverse talents and create a lively atmosphere. A special segment was dedicated to sharing memories and reflections, where students, faculty, and staff could share anecdotes and express their gratitude and good wishes. A gala dinner was arranged for all attendees, providing an opportunity for networking, socializing, and cherishing the final moments of togetherness. During the farewell event, the importance of staying connected with the institute's alumni network was emphasized. The graduating students were encouraged to maintain ties with the institute, avail ongoing career support, and contribute to the growth and development of future batches.
